

Fingerprints of God Journal Prompts

1. Write about a time you exercised bold faith that made you very proud of yourself.
2. What is the connection between faith and purpose?
3. Do you show the same amount of faith in all areas of life (marriage, money, work, health etc)? What can you do to balance it out?
4. Who would you choose as a faith mentor? Why?
5. How does your faith serve you?
6. How does your faith serve others?
7. Do you think you need a faith coach? What role would this person play in your life? How would you benefit from the experience of working with them?
8. What is the most powerful faith story you have ever heard? Why does it resonate with you so much?
9. How have you leaned on your own understanding in the past? How did it affect your faith?
10. Faith without works is dead. What does this mean to you?
11. Have you ever heard God's voice and disobeyed it? What were the consequences? How was your faith strengthened or weakened as a result?
12. If the Bible were to be rewritten with you as a character in it, what would you want to be remembered for?
13. What morning routines do you have that support your faith for the day?
14. What evening routines do you have that prepares you for a night of peace?
15. Have you ever been jealous of someone's faith walk? Why? Where are you now with that?
16. Have you noticed that you struggle in faith during certain seasons or when it comes to certain aspects of your life? What are those times? What can you do to be more aware? What can you do to exercise stable faith during those times?
17. Write about something you sense God is asking you to step out in faith on.
18. Write about one thing you can start doing today to grow your faith.
19. Do you think faith and logic have anything to do with each other? What Bible verses can you use to support your thoughts?
20. How do you wait in faith?
21. Write about someone whose faith you admire and why.
22. Write about a time when God sent you a direct message you couldn't miss.
23. What are my gifts? How can I use one gift to help someone's faith today?
24. What are misconceptions you've held about faith? When did you realize it? Where are you now in your thoughts about those misconceptions?
25. What does trusting God completely look like? Sound like?
26. Scripture says faith is a gift. How are you sure that you have accepted that gift?
27. What limiting beliefs do you have about the power of faith? What Bible verse can you draw on to deal with these limiting beliefs?
28. Hope and faith go hand in hand. How would you describe your level of hope?
29. What can you do in unplanned, down time to enhance your walk with God?